

Draft agenda

Date of document, Brussels

IndustriAll European Trade Union Collective Bargaining and Social Policy Spring School Towards a bargaining agenda for digitalisation

8-10 March 2022, Florence

Tuesday 8 March 2022

morning Arrival of participants

12.30 Lunch

13.45 Welcome & Introduction of the participants

14.30 Implications of digital transitions on employment in the manufacturing industry

- Introduction by the EU Commission, DG ECFIN: Anneleen Vandeplass, Alexandru Ciungu
 - Questions and debate
-

15.30 Coffee Break

- 16.00
- How is digitalisation impacting the quantity and the quality of industrial jobs? contribution by IG Metall: state of play and strategies to turn challenges into opportunities
 - Dr. Patrick Loos, IG Metall, Bezirksleitung Nordrhein-Westfalen
 - A company approach, Andreas Kremer, EWC member and chair of the German works council (Schneider Electric)
 - Questions and debate
-

17.30 End of the first day

20.00 Joint dinner

Wednesday 9 March 2022

9.00 Start of the second day

- 9.00
- Introduction to the workshops
 - Working group session: which impact of digitalisation on jobs throughout Europe?
-

11.00 Coffee Break

- 11.45
- Reports and next steps
-

13.00 Lunch

14.00 Artificial Intelligence: threats and opportunities for workers

- 14.00
- AI Act: introduction by the industriAll Europe Secretariat

- 14.15
- Brando Benifei (MEP, S&D), lead negotiator of the AI Act
Questions and debate
-

15.00 Coffee break

- 15.30
- A guide to Artificial Intelligence at the workplace: Franca Salis-Madinier, national secretary, CFDT Cadres, Vice-President of the EESC workers' group
 - The case of Schneider Electric, Andreas Kremer
 - Questions and debate
-

17.00 End of second day

20.00 Joint dinner

Thursday 10 March 2022

9.00 Start of the third day

Dealing with AI at the workplace: the trade union challenges and strategies Session moderated by Aida Ponce, ETUI

- Working group session: which trade union strategies to deal with AI?
 - Reports and next steps
-

13.00 Lunch

Departure of participants / meeting of the SWP in the afternoon
